Alex Azar, 24, Killed In Auto Accident

Johnston City Man Also Dead In Collision

Crash Occurs Early Sunday in Williamson County

Alexander Azar, 24, known to his friends as Alex, was killed early yesterday in a Williamson county auto crash that also took the life of the driver of the other car.

Young Azar and Michael C. Dunnigan, 26, of 1200 Trout street, Johnston City, were killed, apparently instantly, when the two cars were driving, collided nearly head-on between midnight and 1 a. m. on Route 37 three and a half miles north of Marion. Azar was alone, and was driving his own car.

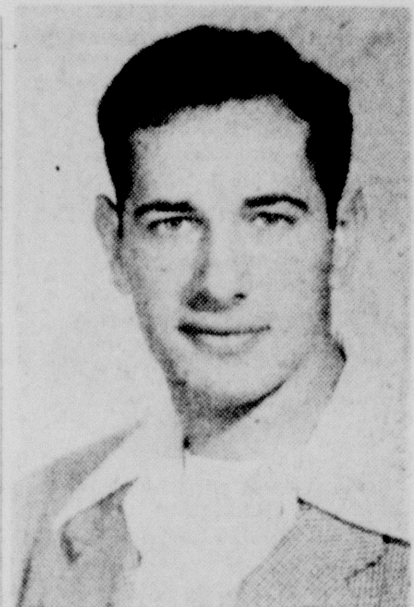

Azar had headed north and Dunnigan was going south when the two automobiles struck. The two drivers were thrown from their vehicles and Dunnigan's companion, Miss Madeline Antonini, 23, of Johnston City, was seriously injured. Miss Antonini, who was not thrown from the Dunnigan machine, was taken to the Marion hospital.

Funeral Tuesday

Williamson county officers said that with both drivers dead and Miss Antonini unable to tell them anything, they did not know just exactly what happened to cause the collision. She was still unconscious at mid-morning.

The Azar body was brought to the Gaskins funeral home where it will lie in state until the funeral service, to be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the First Baptist church, of which he was a member. The Rev. Joe Morrison, pastor of the church, will conduct the funeral rites and burial will be in Sunset Lawn cemetery.

Coroner Sam Simmons of Wil-lmsion county scheduled an inquest into the Azar death for 5 p. m. today at the Marion city hall and set the Dunnigan inquest for Tuesday.

Was Student at SIU

Dunnigan was employed at Deatur and was home for the weekend. His body was taken to the Murman and Wilson funeral home in Johnston City. His funeral will be held at 9 a. m. Tuesday at St. Mary's Catholic church in Johnston City with the Rev. Albert Buratto officiating and with burial in Lake View cemetery there.

Azar was graduated from the Harrisburg Township high school, where he lettered in football, in 1950, and spent four years in the U. S. Air Force. He received his discharge last December and was attending Southern Illinois university at the time of his death. He resided with his mother, Mrs. Mary Azar, at 1010 South Granger street.

His father, Charles Azar, died in 1945. He leaves the following brothers and sister: Joseph Azar of Harrisburg, James Azar and Mrs. Thelma Harris of Gary, Ind., Arthur Azar of Cairo, Ill., Charles Azar at Danville, and Louis Azar, who has been working at Boise, Idaho, and who was flying home today.

State Police Stage Raids in Southern Illinois

Hit Five Taverns in Williamson, Alexander Counties

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois state police staged a series of raids in two southern Illinois counties Sunday, arresting two women as inmates of a brothel and confiscating gambling equipment.

A total of 22 policemen swept down on five taverns in Alexander and Williamson counties.

They confiscated a total of $422 in gambling money, plus slot machines and gaming equipment. Officials said charges resulting from the raids were to be filed today in Cairo and Marion.

Capt. Walter Eichen, leader of the raids, said police confiscated a dice table, chips and more than $150 in cash at the El Patio at the intersection of Ill. 3 and 37, and seized a dice table, chips and $232 in the Purple Crackle on Ill. 47. Both taverns are in Alexander county.

In Williamson county, two women were arrested at Ma Hatchett's Club of Colp and were charged with being inmates of a house of prostitution. At Cresspi's tavern in Colp, dice and blackjack tables and $38 cash were confiscated, while nine slot machines were found at the Mariner's Club south of Johnston City.

Income Jumps To Record $321 Billion in U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The national income jumped to a record annual rate of $321 billion dollars during April, May and June, the Commerce Department reports.

This was well above the previous high of $303,600,000,000 set in 1953 and was up nine billion dollars from the first three months of this year, the department said.

In another report, the Securities & Exchange Commission announced that the working capital of U. S. corporations reached a record total of $100,600,000,000 on June 30—a gain of $2,500,000,000 in the April-May-June period.

The Commerce Department report, covering wages, rents, interest and profits, showed that all segments of the economy, except farming, share in the general prosperity.

Farm income declined about 50 million dollars to a mid-year annual rate of 11 billion dollars. Unless there is an abrupt change during the rest of this year, farm income in 1955 will hit its lowest point since World War II.

The department said high profits and income from all other sources is part of a continuing "broad expansion trend" in the nation's economy.

The Commerce Department said income from wages and salaries increased $6,400,000,000 in the second quarter to a record annual rate of $219,500,000,000. The previous record was $209,200,000,000 in 1953.

Corporate profits before taxes climbed $2,100,000,000 to a mid-year annual rate of 43 billion dollars, also a new record.

Mr. Morris is survived by his wife, Ruth, and two stepsons, Gene Fletcher, Metropolis, and Billy Fletcher, Aurora, and one stepdaughter, Mrs. Marylou Adams, Staten Island, N. Y.

Eisenhower Receives Flood Relief Reports

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower today received with satisfaction a brief report on the extensive activities of the federal government to provide relief assistance to flood-stricken areas of New York, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and other sections of the East.

The chief executive received a generalized report on federal storm relief work from his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, as Mr. Eisenhower awaited the arrival of Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Mr. Eisenhower's recovery from his Sept. 24 heart-attack continued to progress satisfactorily at Fitzsimons Army Hospital.

He was able to sit up in a chair beside his bed for 30 minutes this morning and return to his bed for a morning's sun bath on the eighth floor terrace outside his room.

He expected to confer with Wilson and Radford this afternoon in his hospital room. Following an established medical routine, the President's doctors planned to have him sit up for another 30 minutes late this afternoon.

The Wilson and Radford conferences will be followed by conferences Wednesday with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Friday with Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr.

Mr. Eisenhower's doctors planned to let him sit up more and more this week and probably begin taking his first steps next week, if his recovery continues on schedule.

Stolen Auto Found; Officers Hold Car, Motorcycle

Sheriff William T. Barrett today reported that a car stolen from the Bert Rude car lot in Harrisburg was found the following day and that he has in his custody an auto and motorcycle whose owners are not known.

The car stolen from the Rude lot Friday night was a Chevrolet Powerglide. It was found Saturday by county officers on a gravel road between Routes 45 and 142 south of Eldorado. It was undamaged but the battery was run down.

Found in a ditch Saturday off Route 34 seven miles south of Harrisburg was a 1949 gray two-door Ford, with radio and aerial. There were no license plates. The car was towed to Harrisburg.

Also found was a motorcycle which had been in a field near Route 45 and the Beulah Heights crossing west of Eldorado for about four months. It was seen there by a berry picker four months ago but he did not report it at the time. However, he saw it there again and this time called the sheriff. Barrett said it is a blue 1946 Harley-Davidson.

World Population 2,620,000,000

CHICAGO (AP)—There were 2,620,000,000 persons in the world last July 1, Rand McNally & Co. estimated today.

The map company, making the estimate in the centennial edition of its Atlas, said the figure is an increase of 120,000,000 over 1950 and of 380,000,000 since 1939.

The total was boosted by a 1953 Communist China census which reported a population of 580,160,000—100,000,000 more than the latest Nationalist Chinese estimate, the company said.

Geological Survey Field Trip to Start from Shawneetown on Oct. 22

URBANA, Ill. — The third and last of the fall series of Earth Science field trips given by the Illinois State Geological Survey will start from Shawneetown Saturday morning, Oct. 22, according to George M. Wilson, head of the Survey's Educational Extension Service. The Geological Survey is a division of the state Department of Registration and Education.

The region around Shawneetown, on the Ohio river in Gallatin county, is at the margin of the glacial portion of Illinois, where much bedrock is exposed at the surface. "We will see old sand dunes now covered with timber, thick loess deposits, buried soils, and many rocks of Pennsylvania and Mississippian age, some of which are faulted," Wilson said.

"When earth forces crumpled the rocks and broke them, some of the rock strata were displaced nearly 4,000 feet and some of the fault zones were mineralized."

Margaret, Townsend Return to London from Week End Meeting

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret and RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend returned from a week-end meeting in the country today and ran into a possible storm of trouble over their reported romance.

Margaret said a lingering goodbye to Townsend at the Allanby Park estate of her cousin, Mrs. John Wills, and then sped off to London and a busy week of social and official engagements.

Two hours later, Townsend drove his French sports car out of the gravelled driveway of the Wills' mansion at nearby Binfield and headed back toward his London flat.

As the two principals in Britain's most notable royal romance in 19 years returned to the capital other figures in the mounting drama also headed back to town. Public Expresses Approval

Queen Mother Elizabeth arrived at Clarence House shortly before the arrival of Princess Margaret. Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden arrived in town shortly before lunch and invited a number of his ministers to confer with him this afternoon.

Queen Elizabeth II and her two children headed in from Scotland later in the day, and the duke of Edinburgh was en route from Denmark.

Britons already were dividing over whether the 25-year-old princess and the 41-year-old handsome war hero could complete their romance with a fairy tale wedding, or whether they should be subjected to a "second class" marriage.

The press and public apparently were on the side of Margaret and Peter.

Church Is Opposed

The Church of England obviously was opposed, since Townsend is a divorced man and the Anglican faith does not sanction remarriage of a divorced person.

But Eden and Parliament seemed inclined to favor the princess and the pilot. Eden himself is divorced and seemingly would be sympathetic to their cause. Parliament is in a position to amend the Royal Marriage Act of 1772 which presently would delay and complicate any marriage plans.

If Parliament does not disapprove, Margaret can marry the man of her choice a year after she announces her intention.

But the bishops of the Anglican Church, who sit in the House of Lords, could put obstacles in the way of full parliamentary approval and force Margaret to renounce her royal prerogatives and right of succession to the throne before she married Townsend.

In addition, the duke of Edinburgh, who is reported to have suggested Margaret's latest meeting with Townsend after a two-year separation, was said to be advising strongly against a marriage between the pair.

Queen Elizabeth herself, no matter how sympathetic her personal feelings might be toward her sister, could not publicly approve the marriage since as Queen she is defender of the Anglican faith.

The Thornton funeral home was in charge.

Farmer Fires at Gasoline Thieves

Troy Hicks reported to county officers that he fired at gasoline thieves, who made a getaway, at his farm on the Billman road south of Eldorado at 12:15 a. m. Sunday.

Hicks' wife was awakened and saw two youths trying to take gasoline from a pump between the house and barn. Hicks got his shotgun and fired but the two ran to an auto, in which a third person was waiting, and got away.

Eldorado Gets $1,968 Sales Tax Revenue

The one-half cent municipal sales tax produced $1,922.131 on August business transactions, a report to Gov. William G. Stratton by Director Richard J. Lyons of the Illinois Department of Revenue showed today.

After deduction of the six per cent administration cost, amounting to $115.091 and $3,945 which was protested, the total tax distributed to 114 cities qualifying in August was $1,803.095.

Eldorado received a total of $1,968, the report shows. This is less than the city administration had estimated Mayor Carl Johnson said today. However, Mayor Johnson added that state officials had told city officers that the first month would probably be lower than other months due to the confusion of reporting in the first month.

Amounts received by other southern Illinois cities included Anna $2,367, Benton $3,040, Carbondale $4,387, Du Quoin $2,645, Herrin $4,010, Johnston City $867, Marion $4,803 and West Frankfort $4,149.

Harrisburg's sales tax ordinance was passed too late to be effective on August sales.

Mayor Johnson stated today it had been estimated Eldorado would receive approximately $3,000 each month. The estimate was based on the following—Approximately $16,000 was received by the state monthly on the old two per cent sales tax figure on sales in Eldorado township.

This total was divided by four, as Eldorado receives money on a one-half sales tax figure, leaving a $4,000 total. Then $1,000 was deducted on the basis that this much business was done in the township outside the city limits.

Eldorado has started a street repair program that includes putting gravel on every unpaved street in the city. A new truck with a capacity of more than 10 tons of gravel has been purchased and has been making three trips daily, as the street program got underway.

Johnson said the program called for gravel, oil and chips, but with the reduction in the sales tax receipts from what was estimated, it might be necessary to cut back the program to some extent.

Johnson did say the city of Eldorado is on good financial basis and he hoped the street program could be carried to its completion even if receipts were less than expected.

Damage May Hit Half Billion In Seven States

Estimate 25,000 Persons Homeless; Rain Continues

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Flood waters of scores of streams in seven northeastern states began slowly to recede today, leaving in their wake a mounting toll of dead and missing and damage that may total more than a half billion dollars.

The latest survey showed at least 48 dead in the flood-ravaged area stretching from Maine to Pennsylvania where a similar disaster struck only one month ago. An estimated 25,000 persons were homeless and thousands were idled when industries, either inundated or without power, were forced to shut down.

Rain, which had fallen for four days, continued to pelt down on the stricken area and the Boston Weather Bureau saw no respite from the cloudy skies until Wednesday. However, the Weather Bureau said swollen streams are slowly receding and will continue to do so.

Connecticut Hardest Hit

Its forecast said that rainfall today and Tuesday would measure 1 to 2 inches or more and that if such a fall developed in eastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island there might be further rises in streams in that area.

Connecticut, which bore the brunt of the August floods, was hardest hit by the newest disaster, especially the eastern coastal area of the state where hundreds of homes and industries were inundated and water and food supplies were threatened.

Connecticut counted at least 22 dead. New York reported 10 dead, New Jersey 4, Pennsylvania 4, Massachusetts 4, Rhode Island 3, and Maine 1.

In some Connecticut areas, more than 10 inches of rain had fallen since Friday. At Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., the fall measured 8.15 inches.

Peterson Flies East

Val Peterson, National Civil Defense Administrator, flew East from San Francisco today to take personal charge of rehabilitation and rescue operations and to survey the damage.

President Eisenhower, recuperating from a heart attack at the Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver, maintained constant contact with the flood areas. He made it clear that flood states would be given disaster loans, either through a new declaration or under the one he issued in August.

As the flood waters began to recede into their normal channels today a gigantic rescue and rehabilitation operation gathered momentum.

Twenty-six helicopters shuttled over flood-struck communities of Connecticut lifting hundreds to safety.

Salvation Army Drive Collections Boosted to $3,900

Saline county's annual Salvation Army fund drive is gradually building up, with this morning's total standing at $3,900, including $600 of merchandise.

Eldorado's campaign is still underway, with its present total at $700. Eldorado chairman John R. Murphy predicts that another $100-$200 will come in.

General Chairman John W. Biggers announced this morning that contributions from the Union locals will aid considerably, and they are expected to start coming in this week.

"We should receive at least another $500 from the solicitations yet to be made," Biggers said. He remarked that with an optimistic outlook the people of Saline county can still keep the Army post here.

"I've had several persons of average means contribute in a fine way, and others who are able to give more are falling short," Biggers said.

Following is a list of contributions of $15 or more not listed before: Dr. L. I. Webb, Otto Barnett and Son, Veterans of Foreign Wars, $25; Tison-Hall, John's cafe, Social Security office, $15.

27 Killed in Illinois Highway Accidents During the Week End

By United Press

Tragedy struck in quantity on Illinois roads during the week end. A total of 27 persons were killed in auto accidents in the span of 60 hours.

The worst crash occurred near Ottawa when five Chicago youths were killed as their car went out of control and smashed into a tree on Ill. 71.

Three Glassford youths met death when their auto plunged off a black top road near Havana and burst into flames. The victims were Frederick Zimmerman, 21, Dale Robbins, 26, and Harold Robbins, 19.

In another multiple fatality wreck, two persons were killed in a three-car crash on rain-slicked U. S. 66 south of Bloomington Sunday night. The dead were Dwayne Basham, 24, of Joliet, and Mrs. Irene B. Fisher, 50, Bloomington.

State police said Basham's car skidded into the rear of a car driven by Robert E. Brock, Joliet, and then veered into the path of the Fisher auto. The dead woman's husband, Robert M. Fisher, 45, was injured seriously, and Brock sustained lesser injuries.

Four persons were killed in the Chicago area Sunday night to boost the total.

Mrs. Ann Stahlman, 41, was killed and her twin brother, John Licko, was injured seriously when their car smashed into an underpass approach, and Michael Lombardi, 65, Charlene, Pa., was killed when a bus hit him and another man as they were unloading bags from the trunk of their car.

Albin Rydelus, 38, was hit by a car and killed, and 4-year-old Janice Posego, Joliet, was killed in a collision in front of the suburban Oak Forest infirmary. Three of Janice's sisters and the driver of their car, John Hayes, 23, Joliet, were treated for injuries and released. Also treated was the driver of the other car, Carl Reilly, 47, Markham.

Other deaths were: George King, 23, Springfield,

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Ike's Doctor Won't Get Money He Wants For Heart Research; Republican's Stage Sideshow Strike Against Pennsylvania's Democratic Governor; Penn. Senate Sits 10 Months, Blocks 500 Bills.

WASHINGTON.—It looks as though Ike's heart specialist, Dr. Paul D. White of Boston, isn't going to get all the money he wants for research into the cause of heart disease.

Budget Bureau estimates are worked up long before Congress convenes, and last week the preliminary figures for the Eisenhower budget on heart research were up for confidential back-stage discussion. The figure is not supposed to be known, but the fact is that Dr. James Watt, medical director of the National Heart Institute, which comes under the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, was willing to like the budget for heart research only $2,000,000.

Dr. White, in eloquent testimony before Senator Hill of Alabama last spring, pleaded for more—at least an increase of $3,000,000.

White told how the U. S. is the "unhealthiest" nation in the world because of heart disease, how some areas like southern Italy, Sicily, and North Africa don't have heart disease, how he had spent money from his own pocket on research. He estimates that 10,000,000 Americans now have heart trouble, and that 80,000,000 Americans, one-half the population, will eventually die of it.

The final budget figure for heart research hasn't been fixed yet. However, last week's confidential talks indicated it would be about $3,000,000 less than the increase Ike's doctor asked for.

PENNSYLVANIA SITUATION

One of the most unusual and important political situations in years is now taking place in Pennsylvania. It's aimed at young George Leader, who at 36 amazed the nation by becoming the first Democratic governor elected in Pennsylvania in 20 years.

The Democratic surge was so strong that Leader, all his life a chicken farmer, carried the lower house of the Pennsylvania legislature by a workable margin, but with fewer seats up in the Pennsylvania Senate he has a margin there of three Republican votes against him.

As a result of this three-vote margin, the Republican Senate has kept the Pennsylvania legislature in session for 10 long months, has bottled up some 500 pieces of legislation already passed by the House, and has left the third state in the union with no appropriation bills, and on the verge of bankruptcy. It's one of the most stubborn political situations ever seen in the nation.

In New York state, where Democratic Governor Harriman has a hostile legislature, the Republicans have given him a reasonable amount of co-operation. In Washington, the Democratic leadership has cooperated with Eisenhower on all his money bills, all his foreign policy, and passed about 50 per cent of his "domestic legislation."

But in Pennsylvania, Leader's program to improve the health, education and welfare of the state, and pass a new tax bill, has been completely stymied.

PENNSYLVANIA'S POOR RECORD

It happens that Pennsylvania, third most populous state in the union, ranks 28th in schools, 45th in mental health, has no program for retarded children, has no real rehabilitation programs for its 24 state institutions, and, of 67 counties, only one-half have a service for juvenile delinquents. In Philadelphia today, 100 persons are in jail, not as criminals, but because there is no room in the overcrowded mental institutions.

To remedy this situation, idealistic Governor Leader passed through the Pennsylvania lower house $9,000,000 for health, $18,000,000 for public welfare, $23,000,000 for education, $24,500,000 for mental health and welfare, and $27,000,000 for economic development.

But, there's a hitch. The House, that was a far a field, got

Predict Party-Line Fight Over Tax Cuts

WASHINGTON.—A key member of the tax-writing House Ways & Means Committee predicts a party-line fight next year over the best way to cut individual income taxes.

Rep. Noah Mason (R-Ill.) said he is certain President Eisenhower will recommend tax reductions early next year. But he and another tax expert—Rep. Hale Boggs (D-La.)—differed sharply over the tax-cutting formula.

Boggs, also a committee member, said the "only fair approach" to the problem is an increase in exemptions, a plan advocated by many Democrats. This plan would give the biggest reduction to taxpayers in lower income brackets.

But Mason said the "only sound method is a straight percentage cut." He predicted Mr. Eisenhower will recommend such a formula.

Mason and Boggs spoke out in separate interviews Sunday in the wake of a new pronouncement on tax-cutting prospects by Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey.

Humphrey, after a bedside conference with Mr. Eisenhower, said that he hopes the budget can be balanced in the current fiscal year, clearing the way for the President to recommend a tax cut in the next fiscal year. But Humphrey said a budget surplus must be in prospect for fiscal 1957 before taxes can be slashed.

Nixon Is Man to Beat in GOP Race, Sen. Dirksen Says

CHICAGO.—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen said Sunday that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is the "man to beat" in the race for the Republican presidential nomination next year.

Dirksen's statement in a television interview was based on the assumption that President Eisenhower will not be a candidate for re-election, he said.

Nixon is "out in front by virtue of his position in the administration," the Illinois Republican said, and will win the nomination "unless another candidate emerges who has considerable strength."

Dirksen, who is running for re-election and has been mentioned himself as a possible presidential nominee, refused to discuss the possibility of his winning the bid. But he added that "no American would close the door to the opportunity to be president."

Dirksen also said that he continues to support the administration's flexible farm price support program. He called it a "durable solution" to the problem of farm prices and surpluses.

Hurricane Katie Hurls Winds at Dominican Republic

MIAMI (UP)—Hurricane Katie hurled winds of 115 miles per hour upon the Dominican Republic with only a few hours warning today, threatening southern coast lowlanders with flooding rains and dangerous tides.

The small but vicious new hurricane, 11th tropical whirler of the year, was first spotted by reconnaissance aircraft Sunday afternoon and by midnight (EDT) slammed full upon the hastily alerted country coastal residents, who were urged to flee inland.

The San Juan, P. R., Weather Bureau said the hurricane would lose much of its strength among the 10,000-foot peaks in the interior but probably would regain full force over the open Atlantic. Katie was expected to cross the island by noon EDT.

The indicated course was direct, away from the U. S. mainland with Bermuda, hundreds of miles ahead, the only other landfall near its path.

France Installs 4-Man Council To Rule Morocco

RABAT, Morocco.—France installed four white-hooded Moroccan leaders as a throne council today in a move that pleased neither the nationalists nor the die-hard French settlers who warned of violence to come.

The throne council promised a new and democratic era for the terror-ridden protectorate and said its first task would be to form a representative government to define the permanent links between France and Morocco.

While the 108-year-old grand vizier of Morocco was reading the proclamation in the imperial palace's Hall of the Viziers, acts of terrorism were reported throughout Morocco. And Frenchmen and Moslems still were killing each other in the Rif Mountains.

Installation of the throne council was a major move by Premier Edgar Faure to save his government in the bitter National Assembly debate at home which comes to a climax Tuesday afternoon when Faure has posed a vote of confidence.

Four Escape from Pontiac Penitentiary

PEKIN, Ill.—Police early today concentrated a search for four escaped convicts in a swampy area along the Illinois river here.

The men escaped from the state penitentiary at Pontiac shortly after midnight, state police said.

They were listed as Thomas Kremen, 20, sentenced from Cook county; Robert Jackson, 20, from Cumberland county; Joseph Poole, 21, from Christian county; and Jerry R. Hilt, from Pekin.

Reuther Calls For 30-Hour Week, Early Retirement

WASHINGTON.—CIO President Walter Reuther called for a 30-hour work week today in an eight-point program designed to cope with the "second industrial revolution."

As "cushions" to meet the age of automation, Reuther also called for a rapid increase in consumer buying power; an earlier retirement age, and improved social welfare services.

He gave his views in testimony before the subcommittee on economic Report.

The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex.), is holding hearings on the new industrial techniques of automation, the replacing of man by machine.

Reuther's program also called for aid to small business; the retraining of workers affected by automation; aid to communities affected by the new technology; and corporate price policies designed to help consumers enjoy the benefits of rising productivity.

They have found soothing relief and a new zest in life. The Excelsior Institute, devoted to the treatment of diseases peculiar to older men by NON-SURGICAL Methods, has a New FREE BOOK that tells how these troubles may be corrected by proven Non-Surgical treatments. True Blue Workers Class Installs Officers

The Pickford home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and a delicious meal was enjoyed by all.

Illinois W. C. T. U. 81st Convention Held in Danville

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Putnam, Mrs. Phoebe Cox and Mrs. Robert Chastain returned Friday from Danville where they attended and participated in the 81st state convention of the Illinois Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The convention dinner was the outstanding event of the program with John William Chapman, lieutenant governor and past chairman of the State Parole Board, as guest speaker. Mr. Chapman explained how the parole members go to the prison once each month and live there until their work is finished. They eat, sleep, have their laundry work done, shoes polished and barber work done there. He told of the good food and that most of the time the prisoners could have seconds after they had emptied their bowls. At one prison the meal consisted of 2800 pounds of corn meal mush with 200 gallons of sweet milk.

The prisoners go by number and not names. Mr. Chapman stated that it costs $1,000 per year to keep a man in prison and $3,000 for a woman prisoner. He spoke at length of juvenile delinquency and gave this remedy "Keep children in school as long as one possibly can afford to do so, keep them in Sunday school while they are small and in both Sunday school and church when they are older." He also asked parents not to send their children to church but to take them.

Murder in Haiti

by John W. Vandercook

Distributed by NEA Service, Inc. Copyright 1955 by John W. Vandercook

THE STORY: Robert Deane believes that his partner Bertrand Lynch threw a knife at Viggo Sand for some reason, possibly to frighten Sand into telling the purpose of a strange voyage into the Caribbean. Deane also has learned that another passenger on Sand's yacht, Manfred Braun, had been injured previously, before Lynch and Deane joined the cruise.

Lily Wyndam was silent for a moment, then she went on: "Braun was a mess. When he reeled out into the corridor both the torches were on him and I had a good look. Our Germanic playmate was wearing white pajamas. About half of him was covered with blood. With his right hand he was holding his left shoulder, like this." Lily gestured. The blood came from there. He must have been stabbed. If there had been a shot, I would have heard it. Braun didn't appear all the next day. The day after he'd rigged up that black sling and the official story that he'd come a cropper in the storm. "What, Mademoiselle Poirot, are your deductions?"

"I think Braun was being burglarized and had the bad luck to wake up and the burglar let him have it." "Burglarized of what?" "How should I know? Herr Braun may, of course, be the custodian of the ruby from the eye of the sacred idol. Or on the other hand, he may not. What I had in mind was that someone was trying to find out just who and what Manfred Braun really is. Possibly by thumbing through his private papers. And was interrupted. But this little attempted homicide on deck tonight alters my theory." Once more Lily rather nervously examined the emptiness around us. "Which was," she went on in a very low voice indeed, "that the burglar was an emissary of Viggo's. I don't care what he says about 'old acquaintance.' I wouldn't be surprised if he had never laid eyes on Braun before he got aboard in Bremen. Were you watching his face when that knife buzzed by tonight?"

"Just at the moment I was counting my own features to see what was missing." Again Lily hesitated. "I was," she said at last. "Dear Viggo was frightened. But it also seemed to me as if he were very much surprised." "I was surprised too. I am always surprised when people throw knives at me." Lily laughed unfeelingly. "If, as I assume we must, there's a blood-thirsty criminal loose among us, and you, as I suppose we must assume, though with more difficulty, are a great detective, then what more sensible than to try and pick you off?" "You have a point," I said. "Rarely, Deane, have I met a man as badly in need of a bright girl as you are. Are you immensely rich?" "Penniless." "A pity. We can never marry." A word on the arrangement of the Victoria's cabins. Up through the mid-section of the ship rose a solid central structure. Sand's suite was forward. At either side of the mid-structure ran two narrow corridors, thickly carpeted and equipped with brass handrails. On to those two corridors gave the 10 doors of the guest cabins, five to a side. Lynch was fully dressed. At my entrance he flapped his arms, he violently shook his head, he contorted his features, he tapped a lean forefinger vigorously against his lips. "Not it. I was to weigh my words." "What," I said solemnly, "a criminal attempt has been made on the life of Mr. Sand. I have—or—made a preliminary search of the ship but I need your help." I didn't think it sounded good. A bit on the stiff side. But Lynch seemed satisfied. "Quite," he said. "We'll make a start at once." This time, for variety's sake, we chose the top boatdeck. "What," I demanded in a hoarse whisper, "was the point of all that? Do you think Sand has your cabin wired?" "I'm sure of it. A small microphone concealed in the base of the table lamp. I've checked. All the cabins are. A permanent installation. In a business way, most useful, I imagine, to our host. The Victoria, as you know, carries amazing equipment." "Look, Bertrand. You heaved that knife at us, didn't you?" "Lost it, too," Lynch grumbled. "Went right overboard. Fortunately, I carry a spare. A perfectly balanced knife's not easily come by."

"You could have buried the thing in either Sand's head or mine, you idiot!"

"Nonsense. I never miss. Or very rarely."

"What was the big idea?"

"This ship," said Lynch briskly, "does 14 knots. We'll be in the West Indies in about five days. And we still know substantially nothing. That answer your question?"

I thought this over. "So," I said with heavy sarcasm, "after due reflection, after all of five minutes of reflection, you decided that the character aboard—who was the most 'susceptible,' the most easily scared into telling all, was that notorious bundle of neuroses Viggo Sand?"

"Men of his type frequently are not afraid of taking risks if those risks seem to them to have a purpose. They are, however, afraid of assassination. Abnormally so. Witness the dictators."

I nodded slowly. "Viggo did have the shakes. I admit I was surprised. But he did not throw himself in my arms and pour out his secrets."

War One Hero to Be Reburied at Arlington Cemetery

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Maj. Sam Woodfill, the hero a nation almost forgot, will be reburied in Arlington Cemetery with the full military honors due him.

Woodfill, called the greatest hero of World War I, died four years ago. His funeral in Madison, Ind., went almost unnoticed by the world and reburial in Arlington's hallowed soil was decided upon only after his fellow townspeople asked the Defense Department to help pay for a larger monument over his grave.

Woodfill's recognition as a hero also was belated. It wasn't until 1921 that many persons in the United States heard of him. Gen. John I. Pershing came across his record while sifting through War Department files. He publicly proclaimed Woodfill, who killed 19 Germans in one day, first among America's heroes of World War I.

An earlier award of the Medal of Honor to Woodfill scarcely had been noted by the public during the turbulent days immediately after World War I.

Woodfill's new grave was dug on the tree-shaded slopes of Pershing Hill near the grave of his former AEF commander.

Five hundred thirty-four thousand persons participated in the War of 1812.

Find Body of Woman in Well in Crawford County

ROBINSON, Ill. (UPI)—Authorities from two counties today investigated the discovery of the nude body of a woman found in a well on a Crawford County farm.

Two farm boys, Larry Patterson and Ralph Rinch, found the body late Sunday after being attracted to the well by a swarm of flies on the well cover. The boys had been playing near the abandoned farm which is being cultivated by the Patterson boy's father, Elmer, who called Sheriff C. T. West after the boys reported their discovery. Darkness fell before the body could be removed from the well and authorities recovered it this morning. West said the body, which was badly decomposed, was that of a middle-aged woman about 5 feet, 7 inches tall and weighing 170 pounds.

Tornado Hits Church in Alabama

OZARK, Ala. (UPI)—A tornado struck and damaged a small Baptist church and injured five persons attending a training union meeting Sunday night, police reported.

Police said the tornado demolished seven homes and three barns in a sweep across Dale county but the only injuries were reported at the Chalk Head Baptist church in the Ewell community near here.

Jet Transport Sets Record in Flight Across U. S.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A fore-runner of jet airliners that will be in commercial service in 1958 zoomed across the country Sunday in 3 hours, 58 minutes to set an unofficial record for transport planes.

The four-engine Boeing Jet 707 transport flew 2,340 miles from Seattle, Wash., to nearby Andrews, Md., Air Force Base at an average speed of 592 miles an hour.

It slashed the cross-country time of present commercial airliners by more than half. The best time racked up by propeller driven planes on the trans-continental flight from Los Angeles to New York is about eight hours.

Pan American World Airways ordered 20 of the swept-wing jet-propelled Boeings and 25 Douglas DC8s last week at a total cost of 289 million dollars. The first of the planes, carrying from 104 to 135 passengers, one scheduled to go into service in 1958.

There are about 20,000,000 living Armed Forces veterans, who, with their families, comprise two-fifths of the nation's population or 62,000,000 persons.

Bull Pups Crush Centralia Frosh-Soph Team, 29-0, at Taylor Field

The Harrisburg Bull Pups, rolling up all their points during the first half, knocked off the Centralia freshman-sophomore football team at Taylor Field Saturday night, 29-0.

Smarting from their only loss of the season at Mt. Vernon a week ago, the Pups played sharp football all the way as they won their fourth contest.

The local line charged well as the defense held Centralia scoreless and Jerry Hicks and Donald Biggs, Pup speedsters, rolled up big yardage carrying the ball.

The local pass and run attack first quarter as they swept the Little Orphans off their feet and added nine the second period. They continued to gain yardage the last half but never crossed the goal line.

Biggs Scores First TD

First touchdown came on the third play of the game when Biggs raced 45 yards through tackle to score. A line play for the extra point was no good.

On Centralia's first play from scrimmage Bill Yates, end, intercepted a Centralia pass and ran almost unmolested for 40 yards for a touchdown. A pass to Yates was good for the extra point and Harrisburg led 13-0 with only two and a half minutes of the game gone.

Third tally of the quarter came after Bud Logan, end, recovered a Centralia fumble on the C-23 and on Harrisburg's first play from scrimmage Hicks raced the 23 yards to score. A pass, Bob Clark to Yates, for the extra point was good and Harrisburg led 20-0.

Hicks Scores Two TDs

Harrisburg took over on its own 48 to go 32 yards for the final touchdown. Biggs and Clark had runs of 8 and 12 yards, respectively, and a screen pass, Mickey Stone to Clark, was good for 10, after which Stone made six to the 15. There Hicks carried again and scooted the remaining 15 to score his second touchdown of the night.

Following the next kickoff, Centralia was thrown for losses of 11 and 6 yards; the second time the earlier being stopped in the end zone for a safety. That made the count 29-0.

Harrisburg was on the C-16 when the game ended.

The Bull Pups made eight first downs to five for Centralia. They made 288 yards from scrimmage to a net 130 for the foe. Of these totals the locals made 241 rushing and 47 on passes. Centralia did not make a yard passing. Harrisburg completed five out of 14 and had three intercepted. Centralia none out of six with one intercepted.

The locals were penalized 10 yards, Centralia 45.

Play Herrin Next

Biggs carried 14 times for 114 yards, an 8.1 yards per try average. Hicks carried for 93 yards in eight attempts, an 11.6 average.

The Pups will play Herrin here a week from tonight. The local freshmen will play the Benton freshmen here tomorrow night at seven o'clock.

Upsets Hit Notre Dame, Georgia Tech; Michigan, Maryland, Oklahoma Win

A flood of weekend upsets which washed away many "big name" teams, including four of the nation's top ten, changed the college football landscape considerably today and even promised to affect the national rankings.

Although the nation's first three-ranked teams — Michigan, Maryland and Oklahoma—all survived during the weekend, four other powers — Notre Dame, Georgia Tech, Texas Christian and Wisconsin—all went down to defeat.

Mighty Michigan, the No. 1 team in the country which goes gunning for its fifth straight victory of the season against Minnesota next Saturday, hurdled stubborn Northwestern, 14-2, last Saturday, while second-ranked Maryland defeated North Carolina, 25-7, and third-ranked Oklahoma clicked off its 23rd victory in a row by crushing Kansas, 44-6.

Southern California began the sudden storm of upsets by toppling eighth-ranked Wisconsin, 33-21, Friday night and all during Saturday form wasn't worth a nickel.

With a huge chunk of the country's football fans looking on, Michigan State licked fourth-ranked Notre Dame, 21-7, in the television game of the week. Auburn

Duke Snider, Al Kaline Named Outstanding

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Duke Snider of the Brooklyn Dodgers was named the outstanding player in the National League and Al Kaline of the Detroit Tigers won similar honors in the American in the annual poll of the Sporting News.

The national baseball weekly also announced the choice of Robin Roberts of the Philadelphia Phillies as the National League's top pitcher and the selection of Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees as the American League's best.

The players are chosen on the basis of votes of managers, players, umpires and correspondents of the Sporting News. The dual "most valuable" awards are made because the paper believes it to be difficult and unfair to judge the value of a pitcher, appearing only every third or fourth day, against the daily works of a regular.

The selections for the past season were unusual in that only two members of pennant-winning teams—Snider and Ford—were honored. Kaline was a member of a fifth-place club and Roberts' team finished fourth.

In 1954, all four winners came from the league champions, Bob by Avila and Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians and Willie Mays and Johnny Antonelli of the New York Giants.

Of this year's winners, only Roberts was picked by a landslide vote. The Phil's meal ticket, chalking up his sixth 20-game season, won by a wide margin over the Dodgers' Don Newcombe. The tabulation was 119 to 46.

Ford, who paced the Yanks' staff with 18 victories against seven defeats, won by a 51-39 margin over Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox, his closest competitor.

Says California, Michigan Lure Teachers With Higher Salaries

NORMAL, Ill. (AP)—Dr. Harold E. Gibson of Illinois Normal University charges that higher salaries are luring Illinois teachers to California and Michigan.

The average starting salary for Normal graduates in Illinois is $3,481 annually, Gibson said. But Michigan pays $319 more and California $446 more, he said.

Gibson, delivering the university's annual placement report Sunday, said also that of 458 Illinois Normal graduates in 1955, 78 per cent are teaching this fall. Eight per cent went into military service, he said, while 5 per cent remained in school and another 5 per cent left teaching for married life.

Only One Letterman Back, But Vienna Coach Isn't Singing the Blues

Carroll Belcher, basketball coach at Vienna high school, is facing the coming cage season with only one letterman among the group of candidates trying for positions on the team.

Jim Penrod, a reserve center who played mostly with the "B" team during the 1954-55 season, is the most experienced player. However, Belcher isn't singing the blues. In fact he says "I expect to have a fair season. We will be short on experience against tough competition, but by tournament time maybe we can be tough."

Vienna's success will depend on the way last year's reserves develop. The "B" team last season came up with a good record, suffering only four defeats.

If the players come along as Belcher hopes, he will have some height in the front with Bill Crews 6-3 1/2, Jim Penrod 6-3 and Ray Yandell 6-3.

Prospects for future years look good as there are 37 freshmen and sophomores out for basketball this fall.

Coach Belcher is a graduate of Anna-Jonesboro high school and Cape Girardeau State College. He has been coaching for six years and is beginning his second year at Vienna.

Vienna is a member of the Greater Egyptian Conference.

Nashua Boosts Earnings to $945,415, Second to Citation

NEW YORK (AP)—Nashua, with a single season earning record behind him, heads for a brief rest at the Belair Farm in Maryland soon and won't resume his assault on Citation's all-time earnings record until next year.

The best of the current three-year-olds, who surpassed Citation's single season earnings mark by winning the gold cup at rain-drenched Belmont Park Saturday, will leave for the Belair Farm in two weeks and probably won't make his next start until the $100,000 Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park next January.

By winning the Gold Cup, Nashua picked up a purse of $52,850, boosting his 1955 earnings to $152,550 and his career earnings to $945,415, second only to Citation's $1,085,769. Nashua's next big stakes victory will make him only the second millionaire thoroughbred.

His address: Joe Frederick, University of South Carolina, Box 1514, Columbia, S. C.

Missed Kickoff Puzzles Officials

FORT WORTH (NEA)—Jim Cooper ran up to kick off for Texas as Christian—and set in motion a chain of events which left officials dizzy.

He missed the ball completely and an alert Kansas player raced up, grabbed the ball off the tee and headed for the goal line.

After a long consultation, officials ruled the ball never had been put in play and the Horned Frogs were penalized five yards for delay of the game.
